

St Stephen's Primary Newsletter March 2015

Well done

- A group of children made the sacrament of reconciliation on Tuesday night at St Mungo's church. The children all did very well
- P5/6 gave an amazing performance of a musical Macbeth for parents and the rest of the school
- Well done to the Fairtrade group for organising activities for the whole school during Fairtrade Fortnight. Children produced some excellent work and some of this was presented at our Fairtrade assembly. Thank you to the parents who attended

Parent Council

As so many people have moved away our Parent Council has decreased. The Parent Council usually meets once a term to talk about the work of the school and put forward any ideas and suggestions. If you would be interested in being on our Parent Council please come along to the next meeting on Thursday 19th March at 2.30.

What's been happening?

- Children and staff worked with a visual artist to give their ideas and suggestions for the new Sighthill
- Staff from St Roch's Secondary have visited St Stephen's to talk to P6 and P7 about moving to secondary and P7 are taking part in Master Classes at St Roch's Secondary
- P1/2 and P3 are enjoying a Tuesday lunch time club. P4 lunch club starts next term
- The whole school benefitted from Science workshops led by Generation Science
- P3 are working with a football coach each week
- Everyone enjoyed a performance of The Little Princess by M and M theatre company
- P5/6 visited Scotland Street Museum to learn about schools in Victorian times
- P6 and P7 took part in a workshop with Childline
- We celebrated World Book Day last week by inviting children to dress as a character from a book
- After school clubs are running for P5 – P7 - Football, Basketball and Code Club
